

■ Course Title

Japanese Practicum III
(Preparation for Undergraduate Entrance Exam)

【Course Outline】

This course is designed for students who wish to start university faculties.

	【Reference Level】 JF Standard/ JLPT	Objectives and goals of the course
Admission to Takushoku University	JFS : B2~C1 JLPT:N2~N1	The objective of this course is to help students who wish to be recommended for admission to Takushoku University to be able to confidently choose the faculty and department that best suits their needs. Specifically, the goal is to improve their overall Japanese language skills so that they can keep up with daily classes after entering the respective department of their choice, and to complete their application for admission with careful guidance.
Admission to University Faculties	JFS : B2~C1 JLPT:N2~N1	The objective of this course is to acquire the Japanese language skills necessary to enter and study autonomously in undergraduate courses at universities. Specifically, the goal is to prepare application forms for admission to the university of one's choice. Moreover, in preparation for the "writing" by EJU, the goal is to acquire the ability to use syntax, vocabulary, and expressions appropriate for higher education, to provide evidence to support claims and conclusions, and to consider issues from multiple perspectives. [Reference: EJU official materials]

*EJU: Examination for Japanese University Admission for International Students

*JLPT: the Japanese Language Proficiency Test

■ Course Title

Japanese Practicum IV (Preparation for the JLPT
"Reading/Listening Comprehension")

【Course Outline】

This course is designed to prepare for the JLPT in
"Reading/Listening Comprehension".

Label	Objectives and goals of the course
A	The objective of this course is to acquire the ability to pass the JLPT N2 or higher. In reading comprehension, the goal is to be able to understand story flows and the intention of expressions in readings on general topics, as well as on somewhat logically complex or highly abstract ones. In listening comprehension, the goal is to be able to understand the gist of speech at a natural speed and to cope with a wide range of situations other than everyday life. In addition, students are expected to be able to respond to a wide range of social issues and to understand the gist of unfamiliar topics.
B	The objective of this course is to acquire the ability to pass the JLPT N3 and N4. In reading comprehension, the goal is to acquire basic vocabulary and to be able to understand sentences with everyday contents and the gist of the sentences using given paraphrases as clues. In listening comprehension, the goal is to become familiar with conversations at a natural speed in everyday situations, and to be able to understand most of the specific details of the conversation and the relationships between characters.

* JLPT: the Japanese Language Proficiency Test

[Reference: The JLPT official materials]

■ Course Title Japanese Practicum V
(Intensive Japanese for Specific Future Paths)

【Course Outline】 This course is designed to improve oral expression and literacy in Japanese according to specific future paths.

	【Reference Level】 JF Standard/ JLPT	Objectives and goals of the course
Business Japanese	JFS: B2 or higher JLPT: N2 or higher, preferred	The objective of this course is to acquire the knowledge and practical Japanese communication skills required when seeking employment in Japan. Specifically, the goal is to learn basic business manners, be able to have dialogues including honorific expressions in job interviews and typical work situations, and be able to use standardized forms and appropriate expressions in resumes and e-mail exchanges.
Vocational School Preparation	JFS: B1–B2 JLPT: N3–N2	The objective of this course is to acquire the Japanese language skills necessary to study at a vocational school. Specifically, the goal is to acquire N2 level Japanese language skills such as basic reading comprehension and conversation skills, which are necessary for daily study after entering a vocational school, and to acquire communication skills that will lead to future employment.
Practical Japanese	JFS: A1–B2 JLPT: N5–N2	The objective of this course is to acquire social skills and practical Japanese language skills necessary for living in Japan. Specifically, the goal is to be able to use appropriate Japanese according to the situation in various situations such as schools, workplaces, public places, and private places, and to communicate smoothly with the people around them, while avoiding conflicts and misunderstandings that occur in daily life.

*JLPT: the Japanese Language Proficiency Test *JFS: the Japanese Foundation Standard

■ Course Title Japanese Practicum VI
(Preparation for the Graduate School Entrance Exam)

【Course Outline】 This course is designed for students who wish to start graduate schools.

	【Reference Level】 JF Standard/ JLPT	Objectives and goals of the course
Graduate School Preparation	JFS: B2–C1 JLPT: N2–N1 or higher	The objective of this course is to acquire the logical Japanese language skills necessary for entering graduate school and the communication skills necessary for life in graduate school. Specifically, the goal is to acquire the ability to understand the high-level Japanese used in graduate school, to gather information on one's own research and specialty, to compose a well-constructed research plan and statement of reasons for application, to communicate one's thoughts orally, and so on.

*JLPT: the Japanese Language Proficiency Test *JFS: the Japanese Foundation Standard